

Willem Evers

Willem Evers is head of section EU within the ministry of Infrastructure and Environment in the Netherlands. He has a degree in Political Science from the University of Amsterdam. He started his career in the Dutch Parliament / House of Representatives (2008-2010). From 2010-2012 he worked as program officer at the Clingendael Institute for Foreign Relations in The Hague. He then switched to the Dutch Central Bank, where he held several (senior) policy advisor positions prior to being promoted to the level of Head of Unit. His last position at the Central Bank was Program Manager of the Sustainable Finance Office of DNB, a unit tasked with integrating sustainability in the core tasks of the Central Bank. July 2023 he moved to his current position at the ministry of Infrastructure and Environment, focusing on transitioning the Dutch economy to reach its full circular potential in 2050.

Annex: Public declaration of interests and declaration of confidentiality