

Garðar Svavar Gíslason

Garðar Svavar Gíslason is Quality Manager at Environmental Agency of Iceland. He is responsible for the functioning of the quality and environmental management system (ISO 9001/14001), follow-up with quality data submissions, Management review, implementation of reviews and improvements. He is ECHA Security Officer and Eionet National Focal Point for Iceland.

He has an M.Sc. in Business Administration (Strategic Management) and Diploma in Public Administration (Health Administration). He has been working for the Environmental Agency of Iceland past two years. Prior to that he worked for the Nation Emergency Center as Quality Manager and for the Department of Civil Protection as Advisor. Looking further back he worked in the private sector for big retail companies i.e. as Director of Internal Affairs being responsible for company policies, safety, security and property management.