

Ana Cristina Carrola

Ana Cristina Carrola is Member of the Executive Board at the Portuguese Environment Agency (APA). She is responsible for the technical areas of Waste, Environmental Licensing, Environmental Reference Laboratory and its regional network, Circular Economy, Impact Assessment and International Affairs. She took up duties in APA as member of the Board in 2019 and has worked as Head of Department of Waste since 2013.

She has a degree in Chemical Engineering from Higher Technical Institute of Lisbon in the area of Processes and Industry branch and a Post-Graduation in Water Quality and Pollution Control from the Civil Engineering Department of the Science and Technology Faculty of the University of Coimbra.